binders Could Deliver Them.

CET ONE WHILE THE SUPPLY LASTS.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 23, 1889,

PRICE ONE CENT.

MANAGER H. C. MINER FIRST RESPONDED TO HER PITIFUL APPEAL.

And So He Will Supply the Artificial Eye-But a Half Dozen Other Generous Readers Were Anxious to Help Her-The Poor Girl Is Very Grateful and Will Re Able Now to Obtain Employment.

ained a crutch by applying to your paper, ught to do the same. Many Jones. 12 West Twenty-third street.

It was stated at the same time that THE EVENING WORLD had investigated the case and found it to be a thoroughly meritorious Refore noon vesterday six letters had been received offering to give the unfortunate girl the assistance for which she asked, and the can be procured in this or any other country. Mary herself.

MR. MINER FURNISHES THE EVE. The first one that came in was from Manager Harry C. Miner, of the People's Theatre, and according to the order of precedence he will furnish the eye. His letter was as

My DEAR EDITOR: Inclosed please find order for one artificial eye from the leading optist of this country who will furnish a first-class article.

H. C. Misser. The order was upon Prof. James T. Davis, of 127 East Fifteenth street.

Curiously enough in the very next mail was the following letter from Prof. Davis himself:

himself:

To the Editor of The Exening World.

Reading the account published in your paper last evening of Miss Jones's loss I beg leave to say that I have been a maker and inserter of artificial human eyes in this city for upward of thirty-live years, and although I don't manufacture any quite as cheap as those you mention I will be pleased to give Miss Jones an artificial eye, the best that can be made, and adapted to the socket, if she will call with a representative of The Evening World at my house, 127 East Fifteenth street. Yours, respectfully.

JAMES I. DAVIS.

A COINCIDENCE OF WELL-DOING. An EVENING WORLD reporter called upon Prof. Davis last evening. When he was shown Mr. Miner's letter he seemed much amused.

"Well, that is a funny coincidence," he remarked. "But I am not much surprised. It is just like him to do that sort of a thing, and he ought to get all the credit for a good deed. I am very well acquainted with him, and we see a great deal of each other. But between you and me, I won't change Mr. Miner a cent, and the poor girl shall have one of the best eyes that I can make her."

Prof. Davis added that he would be out of town to-day, and made an appointment for to-morrow, when the patient will be examined and a temporary eye furnished her, while a permanent one is being made and fitted properly. It was learned incidentally that the Professor's usual charges for making artificial eyes are from $25 to $50. He fits them so that they move in the socket just like a real eye and do not have the glassy stare ordinarily noticed in many such artificial members.

MARY FEELS GRATEFUL.

Poor Mary was overjoyed when she learned the success of her appeal to The Evening World.

the editor of THE EVENING WORLD I only did it because there seemed to be nothing else to do. I had read how the readers of THE EVENING WORLD had helped that poor little fellow, who had broken his crutches, and thought perhaps they might do something for me. I want you to thank Mr. Miner and the others from the bottom of my heart.

I am not getting any wages here, but have been working for my board since I lost my last situation. Mrs. Quantrell is my old my last situation. Mrs. Quantrell is my old mistress, who took me away from Randall's inistress, who took me away from Randall's Island Asylum six years ago. She has taken me back until I can get another situation. Two weeks ago I broke my eye, and it seemed impossible for me to get a place. I'eople wouldn't have me with only one eye, and I was ashamed to go out looking for a place." And the poor girl nearly broke down as she told her pitiful story.

SHE THANKS THE EVENING WORLD READERS. just as well with one eye, but they didn't want me. I didn't see how I was going to replace the one I had broken unless I carned the money to pay for it myself. I could hardly believe it true when I got those three letters to-day, and I want to thank every one of those kind people for what they wish to do for me. If I can only find a good situation now I shall be perfectly happy."

Mary is only seventeen years old, of slight figure and pretty features. She would be a very good-looking girl if it were not for her

Mrs. Quantrell told the reporter that Mary was a hard working and most deserving girl. She had taken her in again since she had lost her last situation, and would give her a bome till she got another, but she could not afford to pay her wages, as she had other servants.

OTRER WOULD-BE SAMARITANS. Here are the other responses that were re-ceived from our philanthropic readers:

Min Mary Jones.
Deal Maddam: We have read your letter in The Everyng Would, and if you will call upon us we will, if possible, furnish you with an artificial wil. if possible, furnish you with an artificial wil. Please present this. Respectfully yours, Mynowrez Bros., Opticians, 295 and 297 Fourth avenue.

Mos Mary Jones.

DEAR MADAM: We read in THE EVENING WORLD of to-day your appeal and note the remarks of the editor stating that yours is a deserving case. If you will call stour store, 107 Park Row, we will cheerfully supply you with an artificial eye, without charge, provided we have a good match of color in stock. The one we will furnish you will not break. Yours respectfully, Ggo. Tiemann & Co.

Offers of assistance were also received from Miss M. Eisner, 322 East Fourteenth street, and "H. H." The latter inclosed some money, which will be returned if "H. H." will kindly send full address.

ARRESTED ON A CHARGE OF ABDUCTION.

Gustave Gambardetta Was Running Boarding-House with Victori Bonboul. ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. 1

NEWBURG, N. Y., Jan. 28 .- A fine appearing Italian, giving his name as Gustave Gambardetta, was arrested here this morning charged with abduction. The girl he was with gave her name as house for railroad employees, and Victor Bonboni came as a girl to work for him. Mis. Gambardetta learned of her husband's whereabouts and put in an pappearance. She had a warrant for his arrest issued and Gam-bardetta and Bonboni came to Newburg. They have been him as man and wife in the They have been living as man and wife in the

It is understood he is wanted in New York

DIED IN THE STATION.

A Prisoner Who Was Too Drank to Tell

Shortly before midnight Officer Michael J Carroll found a man sitting on the steps in front of the bank on the corner of the Bowery and Canal street. He was intoxicated. The policeman took the man to the Elizabeth street station-house, where the prisoner was ound to be so drunk that he couldn't give his name.
After being searched he was allowed to lie down on the floorin a rear room. A few minutes after the midnight roll-call Door-man Kavamagh discovered the man gasping for breath. An ambulance was sent for, but payntickets were issued in the name of Smith.

The man seemed about forty years old, was 5 feet 8 inches tall, and weighed about one hundred and twenty pounds. He had dark complexion, dark hair and mustache, and was dressed in dark ciothing.

From the sort and white appearance of his hands the police think he was a jeweller dy trade. The Coroner was notified.

KNIGHTS ORDER A LOCKOUT.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD,] out at the mines of the Oregon Improvement ompany, to force the Company to disarm the Miners' Union, has been ordered by the Knights of Labor.

furnishing rifles to the Miners' Union. The Knights are also arming themselves.

Bloodshed is expected at any moment. Sheriff Cochrane has wired Gov. Semple to force of railroad detectives and deputy-marshalls in readiness.

Two of the mines have closed down.

The Post Intelligencer this morning pub-lished a letter from Supt. McNeil, of the Oregon Improvement Company's mine mak-ing concession to the K. of L., in which the Company reconsiders the original intention to refuse employment to Knights.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, I ment prevails in this city regarding the arrest of John H. Prescott, a leading business man, charged with embezzling $7,000 belonging to the heirs of E!bridge Josselyn, who were placed under his guardianship.

In the Police Court this morning, Prescott, who had been unable to obtain bail, having been in the station-house all night, was arraigned, waived examination and was held for the Grand Jury in the sum of Prescott's affairs will show irregularities in transaction of business of others besides his wards. To-Morrow Evening's Free Lectures. The fourth series of the course of free even-ing lectures in the public schools will be give to-morrow evening as follows: At 216 East One Hundred and Tenth street, Prof. Leipziger on Local and State Governments and the Conduct of Elections;" at 30 Allen street, Dr. Tansley on "The Eye and Ear;" at 208 East Tansley on 'The Eye and Ear; at 20% Last; Forty-Second street, F. G. Caldwell on 'The Starry Firmament;' at Seventieth street and First avenue, Dr. Hanchett on 'Feeding and funning the Human Machinery;' at 523 West Forty-fourth street, Dr. Roberts on 'The Lungs and Their Functions," and at 225 West Forty-first street, Prof. Lincoln on 'The American Idea."

"Like sunshine in a shady place,"

"Like sunshine in a shady place,"
The poet called a woman's face
That gladdened all who saw its beauty.
A face, no doubt, that beamed with health,
That blessing which is more than wealth.
And lightens every daily duty.
O how can woman, whose hard life
With many a wearing pain is rife.
Escape the grasp of such affiction.
And be a power to bless and cheer?
The answer comes both swift and clear—
Take PHERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION is the only modicine for woman's peculiar weaknesses and alments, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers of satisfaction being given in every case, or money refunded. See guarantee printed on bottle-wrapper. "."

MR. WILLIAM ELLINGER PRINTS A WARN- JAY GOULD'S NAME WAS ON THE SPECIAL ING TO THE PUBLIC.

He Refuses to Pay any Bills Contracted by a Lady Who Calls Herself by His Name— The Latter Insists that She Is His Wife and that They Were Legally Murried-Her Lawver Sava So. Too.

WARNING—The woman who lives at 120 West 53d at. and passes under the name of Mrs. William Ellinger, claiming to be my wife, its an imposter whose real name is Agnes T. Cunningham, and I warn all persons that tell not be responsible for her dects or obligations. William Ellinger.

The above notice was printed in this morning's World, and behind it is a very inter- Thomas Cleary?" esting story.

William Ellinger, whose signature is attached to the above, is a wealthy man. He owns a large cattle ranch at Springerville, Ari. He is also said to own property in this city and Brooklyn. At present he is in Florida.

The lady referred to in the notice and who Mr. Ellinger says is Miss Agues T. Cunninghan, and likewise an impostor, was seen by an Evening Would reporter at the above address this morning. She is known there as Mrs. Ellinger.

She is a slight, trim-built woman of twentyeight years. She is rather pretty, and has a pair of expressive brown eyes that peep out from under a head of jet black hair. At pres-ent she is dressmaking.

The reporter showed the advertisement and asked for an explanation.

Oh, I'm so glad you have shown me this.

Is he in the city? Where did you get it?"

She grew quite excited over the slip, but when she calmed down she said:

'It is a sad story for me to tell and I really don't know how to commence. I am not an impostor, but the lawful wife of William Ellinger. Everybody here knows me as Mrs. Ellinger and that is my lawful name."

They why does this advertisement aphave not seen him for two years.

"I have not seen him for two years. I don't know where he is. He deserted me and left me and my little baby to starve.

"I was married to Mr. Ellinger in November, 1886, at 179 West Forty-seventh street. He did not live with me after the marriage, that is publicly, but visited me from time to time.

"At the end of a week, a week in which I suffered the torments of the damned, he deserted me and I have never heard anything from him since.

"He was a barley and mait commission broker, and had an office at 19 Whitehall street. I catled there repeatedly, but could never see him.

"Seven months after my marriage, my "Seven months after my marriage, my baby, a boy, was born. I named him Claude. I notified my husband through his lawyers, but received only an insulting letter, which so affected me that I was unable to nurse my child. child.

"In vain I tried to get him to come to me, but he would not. Baby lived four months and then died."

"Did be ever send you money for you or the baby and

"Did be ever send you money for you or the baby?"

"He did, but I refused to accept it. He always addressed letters to me as Miss Agnes T. Cunningham, and as such I refused to accept any of his bounties."

She said that she first became acquainted with her alleged husband while she was boarding with a Dr. Chapman at 234 West Thirty-fourth street. This was about two years before her alleged marriage. Ellinger then lived at 203 West Forty-third street.

The lady's lawyer was also seen by The Evening World man. He said that he had no reason to doubt but that a marriage ceremony was performed.

THREE OFFERS FOR THEIR FRANCHISE.

Indianapolis Will Undoubtedly Remain in the National League. ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD I Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 23.-Ex-President Lewis Newberges, as attorney for "an unknown party." has just made a cash offer of $16,000

Cla. & Ind.

ce. Col., Clu. & Ind.
sapeake & Ohio.
c. Burl. & Quincy.
cago & Northwest.
c. Mil. & St. Paul.
c. Rock Island & Pacific.
cago & Eastern Illinois.
c. & Eastern Illinois.
c. & Eastern Illinois.
c. & Eastern Illinois.
c. & Eastern Illinois.

oron Coal rado Coal & Iron Lack & Western ware & Hudson enn., Va. & Ga. 2d ptd., Worth & Don. City et.

New York & Perry Coal N. Y. Lake Erie & Western pid. N. Y. Lake Erie & Western pid. N. Y. Stase & West pid. Norfolk & Western pid. Norfolk & Western pid. Norfolk & Western pid. Dregon Bailway & Navyation Dregon Bailway & Navyation Dregon Transcontinents!

New York Markets.

remained steady during the moring. Cables quiet.

Coverks.—Contracts opened (barely steady at a decline of 10 to 15 points. Jan. and Feb., 15.45; March, 15.35; April and May, 15.30; June, 15.35; July, 15.40; Aug., 15.40; Sept., Oct. and Nov., 15.55; Dec., 15.80. Cables firm. Personeum. — The market opened barely steady at 14c. decline from last night's closing quotation at 8614c. The market was dull and during the morning certificates declined to 8424c.

egon Transcontin og n Short Line. oine Mail

ake Shore ake Eric & Western pfd for the League baseball franchise.

The News has a long interview this afternoon with Nick Young, and it looks as if Indianapolis would not lose the Club after all.

Three different offers have already been made. High. 1000 500 82 50044 10004 merican Express Omerican Cotton Oil American Cable Atch., Top. & Sante Fe., Janada Southern his name was called and the andience of jurors snickered at the amusing idea that the biggest railroad man in America should be called as a juror to try a man for being bribed by a railway company.

Patrick D. Sheils, of 370 West Thirty-fifth street, who was one of the jurors who tried Cleary in 1887, was in the panel to-day. He shook hands with all the lawyers, and Gen. Tracy said he would excuse him on the ground that he didn't know which way Mr. Sheils voted on the other trial.

A Charge that There Is $50,000 Waiting to Drop in Assemblymen's Pockets.

The bill authorizes the Commissioner of Public Works to pave with asphalt pavement the Grand Boulevard (or Broadway) from Fifty ninth to One Hundred and Tenth asphalt company will get the contract and reap much profit. On the other hand it may be stated that the bill provides that the contract for the paying shall be let at public letting after the regula-on advertising, and mentions no brand of in the city, and whether they can be induced not to bid against the commany alleged to be peculiarly interested remains to be seen. There are about a dozen asphalt companies

GOSSIP FROM BLENHEIM.

Interesting Devolopments Are Said to Be

Woodstock that there are queer things doing at Blenheim Palace. Since the Duchess returned from the South of France, it is said that the Duke professes to have discovered certain traits of her temperament not entirely to his liking, and that as she is very high spirited there may possibly be some serious ado over the matter. The sympathy of the people at Blenheim is altogether with the Duchess. The near future may bring some interesting developments.

Is Rev. Dr. Rainsford Going to Richmond [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD,]

Another Homicide Puzzle for the Police to Work Out.

A Janitor Dies This Morning of a Bullet Wound.

He Refused to Tell the Name of the Man Who Shot Him.

The Police Department has another mysterious hom cide on its hands, and thus far it is very opaque. Theodore Wahl, the janitor of an Allen street tenement-house, who was shot in the the book, told their names to Crier Jule abdomen yesterday afternoon by an unknown Arnold and sunk into the witness-chalr-to man, died at the Lodge and Association Hospital at 3, 30 this morning.

> The mystery as to the person who shot him is still unsolved. Just before he died Wahl said to Dr. Beck,

"Don't you know? It was my friend who shot me! The cigar-maker. He had a new episodes in their lives, and then, touching their pistol and he was showing it to me. It was who persistently favored Jacob Sharp's with the dead man seems to have known the fore part of yesterday afternoon. They drank a great deal of beer and grew very There was some meoherent talk, in which the words "pistol," "woman ' and " shoot " occurred. At about 2,30 these boon companions left the place. At 3 o'clock they turned up at thy carpenter shop of William Schoebel, located at the extreme end of an area which is fronted by a row of rear tenements and is called Sventh street place.

To reach it one must pass in from 185 Seventh street through a long archway, and Schoebel has no sign visible in Seventh street

The visitors must have known of the local tion of Schoebel's shop, yet Schoebel and his assistant, Albert Hackenjas, declare that neither of them ever saw either of the callers before.

The stranger wanted a set of strips of white The stranger wanted a set of strips of white wood made for his cigar-making bench. They were to, elevate the upper end of his monlis. While the two carpenters were busy at their work they heard the report of a pistol and one of the men said: "I am shot."

There had been no quarrel. The men had been talking pleasantly together near the door a few feet away.

The other asked what he should do and Hackenjas told him to take his wounded friend to a hospital, whereupon the two left the shop.

the shop.

Hackinjas says the man who ordered the Almost three days land been consumed in the demonstration of how not to do it, and but four of the forty peremptory challenges to which the combatants are entitled had been exhausted.

Hackinjas says the man who ordered the strips was a tail, spare man, perhaps thirty-two years of age, with red hair, a big, red mustache and a red beard hanging down on his bosom about six inches. He wore an overcost with a brown veivet collar and a black derby hat.

A little later Wahl staggered into the Lodge and Association Hospital and sunk into a chair faint from the loss of blood.

He was put to bed and found to be suffering from a pistel wound in the abdomen. To Dr. Kaemer he told conflicting stories.

To Dr. Kaemer he told conflicting stories. The effects of his drinking were still apparent.

He first said that he had been shot accidentally by a friend who had fired at another man. Afterward he said he had been shot accidentally by his friend who had been trying a new pistol.

To Coroner Schultze, who hastened to the hospital, he said: "I have been shot accidentally, and I blame no one for it."

He steadfastly refused to say who his friend was, and died with the secret locked in his breast.

Detective Quigley, of the Union Market Detective Quigley, of the Union market station, has been investigating. He traced the friends from Schoebel's shop through Seventh street, Tomokins Square and St. Mark's place to the very door of the hospital, where the red-bearded stranger left Wahl and where the rod-bearded stranger list want and walked away towards First avenue. Here all trace of the unknown was lost, Wahl was about thirty years old and was a member of Armenia Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and had no relatives. It is thought that his lodge will provide for his funeral.

SUFFOCATED IN THEIR BERTHS.

Two Young Sailors Found Dead on Board

the Stenmship Holbert. Seamen Daniel Desmond and John Walsh both young men, were found this morning suffocated in their bunks on the steamship Holbert, lying at Martin's Stores, Furman, near Fulton street.

The men retired about 9 o'clock last night.
In their bunk room was a small stove. There was no window. When the men went to bed they closed the door of the room. When the mate of the ship, Patrick Bellew, opened the door, at about 1 a. M., he was nearly overcome by coal gas. The men were breathing faintly, but died before an ambu-lance could get there.

Big Victory for the Knights of Labor. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
MARLEBORO, Mars., Jan. 23.—Leon L. Jaquith,

Secretary of National Trade Assembly No. 216, which includes all the shoemakers in the country belonging to the Knights of Labor, received belonging to the Kingms of Labor, received word this morning from Jamestown, N. Y., that the semi-strike and lockout which had existed at the shoe factory of N. W. Cokey for fifteen months had at last been amicably settled. Secretary Jaquith states that the National Assembly believes this to be even a greater victory for the K. of L. than that gained at Brockton in the fight with W. L. Douglas.

Fair; Warm; Variable Winds.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.

For Eastern New

The Weather To-Day. Indicated by Blakely's tele-thermometer: 1889 1888 1889 1889 1888 10 10 12 M 11 18

THE GUILLOTINE AT WORK. THREE MORE HEADS FALL INTO APPRAISER

STEARNS'S BASKET.

Assistant Appraiser Sturgls, Examiner Hamlarities in Sumatra Tobacco Imports in official guillotine again this morning and three more heads dropped into the basket, making an even dozen in all during the past twenty-four hours.

J. Sturgis, who is at the head of the tenth division : Examiner George C. Hammill, one of his subordinates, and Meyer Meyers, foreman of openers and packers, Class A.

Mr. Stearns received the confirmation of his recommendations in his early morning mail from Acting Secretary of the Treasury Thompson at Washington, and he immediately sent to the doomed man the formal notice that their services would no longer be required. No reasons were given and no charges were made. They were simply told to go.

It has been understood for some time past that the recent investigations of the special Treasury agents had disclosed some irregular tites in the Tenth Division, which is the tobacco department, and both Sturgis and Hammill were said to be implicated in discriminations in favor of section investigations. tions in favor of certain importers of Sumatra

Still, that friend remains in hiding, and no one of the score of people who saw him with the dead man seems to have known him.

Wahl and the stranger were together in Sondheim's saloon at 56 First avenue during make specific charges against him.

Although Appraiser Steams says that these last contrinations complete the list of recommendations, the entire department was in a forment this morning over the new removals.

As the dismissed men are all holdovers and there are about one hundred and twelve of the same class left at the public stores, a general cleaning out is anticipated within the ew weeks that remain to the present admin

Deminciations against the Appraiser are heard on all sides, but he does not seem to pay any attention. He says he is only discharging most of the men because the office is overcrowded and they are superfluous. He is short of expert, however, and any appointments will be made in that direction, the appointed D. Addington Wright, a packer, to the position of foreman left vacant by Meyers's dismissal.

AN EARTHQUAKE OR "SOMETHING."

An Unexpected Shock that Has Greatly cause Janitor Dobbin, who lives in the basement, had never felt a sbock, and he naturally would if caused by an E. Q.

The house is right adjacent to the myriad

The house is right adjacent to the myriad of tracks running into the Grand Central Depot, over which hundreds of trains run daily.

The Evenino World young man suggested that the Scillatory motion of the house might be caused by the trains, but Mrs. Butter did not agree with him, so the reporter went away, ascribing the clusive motions of the bouse to "something," as Mr. ions of the house to "something," as Mr. Butler does.

RAIN AND A COLD WAVE.

Expected To-Morrow, One from the South

" Make the most of the balmy sunshine of o-day, for to-merrow it will rain," said the weather man on top of the Equitable Build-zle may be expected." It is storming violently to-day throughout skaters may feel encouraged.

---GIVEN BY THE RIVER.

The Body of Elderly Patrick Koster Found at the Pier.

James Norman, of 73 North Ninth street, between Clinton and Montgomery streets.

The was about fifty five years old, baid and smooth faced, and were a blue overcoat, a dark freek coat and vest, white shirt, black tie and gatters.

The body was sent to the Morgue and the Coroner notofied. It was afterwards identified as that of Patrick Koster, of 57 Monroe street, who disappeared on New Year's Day.

"The Evening World" Was Abend. [From This Morning's Press]

Justice Patterson admired Lynch's patriotism. but couldn't overlook the breach of the peace. Alderman Cowie went to Jefferson Market to pay the $10 fine yesteriay morning, but when he got there found that a representative of The Eveniso World was shead of him.

Entries for the Guttenburg Races. PEPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
NORTH HUBSON DRIVING PARK, Jan 23.—Folowing are the entries for Thursday, Jan. 24;

Notifi HUBBON DRIVISO LARS, and S. A. S. Notifi Race—Purse $200; for maidens; selling allowances, five eightlis of a mile—Peisno, 105; Clontarf, 105; Goo Corbert, 49; sylls, 19; Meisnod, 17; Dake of Cherwell, 17; Matt Sharpe, 17; John Shaw, 163; Gocheco, 163; King Fonzo, 163; Now Theo, 86; Fashion ette gelding, 85; Speckwest, 81; b.

Socond Race—Purse $200; three-quarters of a mile seeling allowances.—Sir Roderick, 119; Planas, 118; Bloss, 111; His Grave, 111; Vengsance, 110; Pampere, 110; Racelle, 109; Roundonan, 107; Nankipoo, 107; Fagin, 107; Frankie B., 107; th.

Third Race—Purse $200; as and one-half furiongs,—Cracksman, 110; Courtier, 107; Spinette, 105; Edine 115; Misc Olive, 105; Teasurer, 111; Marsball A., 110; La Clair, 105; th.

Fourth Race—Purse $200; seven-eights of a mile; selling allowances.—Trasurer, 111; Marsball A., 110; Armstrong, 107; Little Mickey, 107; Dago, 109; Ben Thompson, 105; Saluda, 103; Eigetricity, 102; Gold Star, 102; Breton, 104; Havann, 1100; Lizze M., 100 th.

Fifth Race—Purse $200; three-quarters of a mile; selling allowances.—Battledore, 117; Justin Mack, 115; Millon, 115; Carlow, 111; Matthesam, 111; Lagadere, 111; Landsser, 111; Miltred Jay, 110; Ballot, 110; Blozy Brunnette, 100; Vencher, 107; Commetton, 107; B.

What the Aldermen Say of Their

They Deny That They Have

Alderman Walker Casts Reflections on the Committee on Bridges and Tunnels.

A Meeting of the Dock Committee Called for I P. M. To-Morrow.

The action of the Board of Aldermen in relation to the petition of the New York and Long Island Railroad Company, to tunnel under the East River and this city, has raised a storm of indignation and aroused a strong suspicion of the formation of a "combine" in the new Board.

A similar petition was presented just a year ago, and charges that such a " combine" had been formed then were feedly made on the floor of the Council Chamber, and were substantiated by Gen. Roy Stone, the President of the company, who said that he had been approached by a person claiming to represent a certain number of votes in the Board, who desired to know how much the frauchise asked for was worth in

At that time the matter was even called to the attention of District-Attorney Fellows by Alderman Conkling.

Under such circumstances the action of fiteen members of the new Beard in persisting on a reference of the renewed petition to the Committee on Docks instead of to the Committee on Bridges and Tunnels, naturally caused remark. These Aldermen were inclined to treat the matter very lightly this morning and one, Alderman Walker, even characterized it as a joke. He said.

"I have always been consistently opposed.

An Evening Wolld reporter visited the Central Apartment-House, at 167 East Forty-fifth street, this morning, which, according to Mr. Robert Gordon Butler, who dwells on the fifth floor, was violently rocked by an earthquake or something three times yesterday. Mr. Butler was in bed, but Mrs. Butler said:

"Yes, it was true, and it had occurred three times before."

She did not think it was an earthquake, because Jamitor Dobbin, who lives in the basement, had never felt a shock, and he naturally would it caused by an E. Q.

The house is right adjacent to the myriad of tracks running into the Grand Central on the Dock Committee can't consider and report on this petition as well as those on any other.

"So far as a 'combine' is concerned, I know of none," Alderman Noonan, the new representative from the Fourth District, who voted with the minority, smilingly said:
"Well, I was on the right side this time."
Alderman Butler, when asked about the action of the majority, said: weather man on top of the Equitable Building. "The rain will probably turn to snow, and a repetition of the recent slush and drize the recent slush and drize the reference of the petition, there be. As to the reference of the petition, there be. As to the reference of the petition, there are just as good men on the Dock Committee as on any other."

The good men of whem Alderman Butler scoke are: Alderman Walker, Rinckhoff, Butler, Tait and Goetz, all of whom voted Butler, Tait and Goetz, all of whom voted for Alderman Sullivan's resolution.

Aldermen Rinckhoff and Tait, who are also in the alleged combination, asserted that their opposition was born of a desire to protect New York City and its interests against a great corporation which hoped to make millions out of its Long Island property by robbing the city of its nountains and its humans. out of its Long Island property by robbing the city of its population and its business.

The petition was presented by Alderman Redmond J. Barry, who reported in favor of the petition of last year, and when asked this morning what he thought of the existence of a "combine" he said that it was a rather delicate question to answer. He severely criticised the ifteen, however, for their evident intentional snubbing of President Arnold by ignoring the committees which he had appointed.

When Alderman Butler's attention was called to the fact there are no docks on the East River front where the tunnel is expected to be built, he said there is a water front to be built, he said there is a water front there and docks may be built.

there and docks may be built.

The men who voted for Alderman Sullivan's motion are Aldermen David Barry, Butler, Carin, Claney, Cowie, Divver, Dowd, Flynn, Gilligan, Goetz, Rapp, Rinckhoff, Sullivan, Tatt and Walker.

Nine of these are Tammany Hall men, and a high official in that organization said this morning if it should be proved that their action is actuated by other than proper motives that they will be pretty thoroughly disciplined. He thought, however, that what they had done did not necessarily imply that they are engaged in a strike for boodle.

for boodle.

Mayor Grant was asked if he would interfere in the matter and request early action on the petition. He said:

"I shall not interfere with the legislative duties of the Board of Aldermen further than duties of the Board of Aldermen further than is my right and province to do.

"They have their duties to perform. So have I. If they do anything that is improper or against the interests of the city and it is in my power to review their action I shall certainly apply the remedy."

Alderman Walker his called a meeting of the Dock Committee for I o'clock to morrow.

Suicide of Teller W. C. Smith PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 23.—William C.

Smith, about thirty-two years old, a teller in the office of the City Treasurer, committed sui cide last night in his room in the Narragansett Hotel by shooting himself in the mouth. The bedy was not found until this morning. No mo-tive for the act is now known.

MARY'S NEW GLASS EYE.

The readers of THE EVENING WORLD re sponded with characteristic promptness and generosity to the appeal of poor Mary Jones. On Monday evening the following letter was published:

was published:

F. See Editor of The Econing World:

I sm a poor girl out of employment, and had the misfortune to lose one of my eyes some years ago. I have been wearing an artificial eye, which I happened to break some days ago, and any very uncomfortable without one and also looking for a situation. I have no means whatever to purchase one. Will you please inform me through your valuable paper where I can obtain one in the city free of charge. I read the article in The Evernio World several weeks ago, how Harry White, of Brooklyn, a poor boy, obtained a crutch by applying to your paper.

result is that within a very short time Mary will have one of the best artificial eyes that Four of the letters were sent to THE EVEN-ING WORLD office and two were received by

PROF. DAVIS HIMSELF RESPONDS.

Well, that is a funny coincidence," he World.

"Oh, I'm so glad," she said to the reporter, who called at the house where she is staying in West Twenty-third street, "that I can hardly find words to thank you," and a tear trickled down each cheek.

'I never supposed that people would be so good to me, and when I wrote that letter to the editor of The Eveniso World I only did it because there seemed to be nothing

" I was willing to work hard, and could see present misfortune She is an orphan and has no friends except ther present mistress, with whom she has lived the greater part of the time since she took her from Randall's Island six years ago.

A PARK BOW PHILANTHROPIST.

ANOTHER EYE OFFERED.

To the Editor of the Evening World:
We read the appeal of Miss Mary Jones in today's Evening World.
We are willing to furnish this deserving girl with a proper-fitting eye, free of charge.

Manufacturers, 117 East Twelfth street.

To the Editor of The Evening World.

If you will send the poor girl, Mary Jones, to me I will give her an artificial coe, if I have one to fit her in my stock. Yours truly,

ERNEST GOLDBACKEE, Optician,

98 Fulton street.

Victori Bonboni, aged seventeen. Gambardetta says he left a wife in New York six weeks ago because of quarrels. He went to Montgomery and started a boarding-

They have been fiving as man and with the upper ward of the city
Gambardetta had a roll of bills containing many hundreds of dollars, which he gave to the girl when arrested.
Victori says he did not abduct her. The man will be sent to Montgomery for hearing on a similar charge.

Even His Name.

There was nothing in his possession by which he could be identified except three pawntickets and the card of a Jersey City jeweller named Goldsmith. Two of the

There May Be Further Trouble Between the Oregon Improvement Miners. SEATTLE, W. T., Jan. 23. - A general lock-

The Knights charge the Company with ome and investigate.

The Oregon Improvement Company has a force of railroad detectives and deputy-

The company will make no further dis-crimination. This will probably induce the miners to disarm. CHARGED WITH DEFRAUDING HIS WARDS. John H. Prescott, of Lawrence, Locked Un -Held for the Grand Jury. LAWBENCE, Mass., Jan. 23,-Much excite-is charged that the investigation of Diniaid-liphia & Reading

Pullinan Palane Car Campany
Richmond & West Point Ter.
St. Paul & Omaha
St. Paul & Omaha
St. Paul & Omaha
St. Paul & Omaha
St. Louis & San F pid
Texas Pacific
Texas Pacific
Texas Pacific
Texas Pacific
Texas Pacific
Western Union Tele
Whiteling & Lake Erie New York Markets.

Wheat, Prices opened at a general decline of $4c. May was quoted at $903c. at the opening, and advanced a point to $905c. soon after. During the morning, however, the market weak-cased. The quotation for May steadily declined until it struck 90c. Jan. opened at 95c.; Feb., 955c.; March, 97c.; June, 995s. Shortly before noon May was quoted at 988c. Market dull. Chicago weak. Liverpool quiet.

Corron. —Futures opened easy at a decline of 4 to 8 points. Jan., 9.55; Feb., 9.90; March, 9.71; April, 9.82; May, 9.92; June, 10.02; July, 10.10; Aug., 10.16; Sept.; 9.80. Prices remained steady during the moring. Cables quiet.

HE SAYS SHE'S NOT HIS WIFE. NO JURY YET FOR CLEARY.

PANEL TO-DAY. Cleary's Counsel Deny That They Are Working Up to a Motion for a Change of

Venue The Tiresome Process of Examining the Good Citizens Who Evidently Don't Want to Sit in the Jury Box. " You do solemnly swear that you will true answers make to all questions put to you upon the several challenges touching your competency as an impartial juror between the People of the State of New York and

It was the dulcet voice of Clerk Welsh, and he had repeated the formula to 175 of New York's citizens as they stood, the Holy Book in hand, before Justice Daniels in the Extraordinary Term of the Court of Oyer and Terminer. The citizens had bowed solemnly, kissed tell the truth, if they could, but to get out of doing jury duty any way. McKenzie Semple had quietly led them up through a lot of questions regarding their residence, age, previous condition, family the surgeon at the hospital : matters, what Aldermen they took their drinks with and other interesting and exciting knowledge of the Broadway boodle era, had an accident." asked them if they had formed any opinion regarding the innocence or guilt of the men

Broadway railway scheme.

To this last question 150 citizens had responded eagerly that they had, whereat the soft-mannered prosecutor's countenance, theretofore hopeful, had fallen and he had murmured:

"Do you believe that opinion would make it difficult for you to form a fair and impartial verdict in this trial?"

To which the 150 had each responded in turn: "I think it would."

"Excused," said the Court in a disheartened way, and the citizen who had sworn that he had no brains or mental power, retired with a satisfied smile to his business.
The other twenty five rifficent ways of your cated at the murmured

The other twenty-five citizens were of various kinds. There were men who wouldn't believe informers anyway, and men who knew members of the "combine," men who had never read and dien't know anything about the bribery charges, and men who couldn't talk English nor understand it, but never a man who was acceptable to the combating man who was acceptable to the combating lawyers as a juror, and so the jury box was still empty.

Only a very few men, a dozen perhaps, got beyond the preliminary questions put by Mr. Semple, and only eight were deemed acceptable by Col. Fellows's a sistant.

Of these, four were speedily worked into a state of excitement, by the goulder manling state of excitement by the gentle mailing which Counsellor Ira bafer gave them, and in an unguarded moment gave hasty replies to one of his queries, and were dismissed in consequence.

Two were acceptable to the prosecution and found qualified, but were excluded by the peremptory challenge of Mr. Shafer or Gen. Tracy, and two others met a similar fate at the hands of the District-Attorney.

At this rate it would require thirty days, or six court weeks, to obtain a foreman for the An Evenino World reporter asked John An Evenino World reporter asked John H. Vincent, of Cleary's counsel: "Are you working up to a metion for change of venue to some other county?"
"No, sir!" ejaculated Mr. Vincent.
"But it is a scandal and a shame to try these cases in this city—and call it justice."
Just at this moment a citizen under examination said he had read up pretty well on the boodle members of the Board of Aldermen of 1884 were all crooks and scalawags, at which there was a demonstration of applicate by the speciators, and Ira Shafer's beetling brow became as black as the proverbial thunder cloud.

der cloud.

Jay Gould, President, at 71 and 195 Broad-Jay Gould, President, at 71 and 195 Broad-way, and resident at 679 Fifth avenue was No. 27 on the special panel of 100 jurors called by Clerk Weish this morning, but he did not respond when his name was called and the andience of

ASPHALT AND BOODLE.

The charge is made to-day that Assembly bill No. 29 means a "boodle strike for $50,000."

It is alleged that if the bill passes a certain

INPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD. | LONDON, Jan. 28.-It is reported from

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 23.—It is rumored here that the Rev. Dr. William S. Rainsford, of St. George's Church, New York, is considering a call from St. Paul's Church here.

mill and Foreman Myers Hear Their Fate from Washington Alleged Irreguthe Tenth Division. Acting Appraiser Steams trotted out the

The new victims are Assistant Appraiser S.

Assistant Appraiser Sturgis has been quite istration.

Depunciations against the Appraiser are and the Other from the West.

the Southern States bordering on the At-lantic. This storm is predicted to take a northerly course and is the one expected to entertain New Yorkers to-morrow.

It is cloudy throughout the West, but a cold wave is anticipated from that direction, following on the heels of the rain-storm, and Brooklyn, E. D., found the body of an unknown man drowned at pier 4914. East River.

Weird Voting Yesterday. Formed Any "Combine."